

How My Family Represents God

Hayun Sharon Ko

My family and I live in Orange County, CA. My church is at Buena Park. My dad represents God by teaching others about him! My mom represents God by taking care of babies. I represent God by never forgetting to bring my Offer. My sister praises God by her loud pitched voice.

First of all, One Sunday Morning, I am still not awake. But I know that when I do wake up, I know it will be Sunday. My alarm clock wakes me up from my dream. I slowly open my eyes. Then I remembered it was Sunday! I sat up quickly and got ready for church. I am so excited for today. My sister and I jumped and fell while we got ready for church. My sister and I LOVE going to church. When we arrived, we said “Hi” to a guardian guarding our church. My sister likes to call him “Police dude”. While I get ready to go to JAMM, a kid ministry, I say “goodbye” to my mom and sister.

Second, my dad teaches young adults! When a young adult gets blessed I am sure that my dad feels good. My dad works really hard for his sermons. He leaves the house at five AM and goes to church and comes back at six PM. Then he rests for only one hour and he has to stay up all night getting ready for his next sermon! I don’t know how he manages it, but it sure sounds tiring! I don’t think I can ever do that! I just mostly spend my time staring at the TV. Te he...

Third, my mom, on the other hand, takes care of babies at church! We leave our house at nine o’clock and my mom takes care of the babies! I have NO IDEA how she handles all of the four to five babies! Sure she has other people as well, but they only have three people in all. So one of them has to carry two babies at the same time! I am sure my mom is EXHAUSTED! My mom said that taking care of babies is worth it. Because the parents can listen to the sermon and get blessed.

Fourth, there is me! I never forget my offering and I give the church five dollars instead of one! I know that isn't much of a difference, but giving just one dollar seems wrong. I mean, the church does so much for us, but we only repay with one dollar? Nuh Uh. That's not happening to me.

Fifth, we have my sister! My sister, as I have said before, can sing LOUDLY. She can praise God just like that! She is.. how do I put this into words? A little.. Unique than others. She is very, I repeat, VERY energetic. She is more energetic than you can ever imagine. But singing loudly can come in handy. She can sing for God and can influence others to speak up, and that there is nothing wrong with it!

Sixth, I am about seven years older than my sister, so we have to go to different classes. When my mom brings my sister to her class, which is called "Sunflower", my mom has to go and take care of the babies. I go to the second and third service. I love to answer the questions that they have in third service because I already know the answers to them. Whenever I do that it makes me feel that I am closer to God every time I answer a question!

Seventh, when my family and I came to America we lived in Pasadena, CA for two years. Because my dad wanted to study more about God, we moved to Philadelphia, PA. So, we traveled by road. It took us ten days to get there. While every night we stayed at a hotel, my family and I prayed, praised, and read the bible because we prayed for our safety and a good life in Philadelphia. When we arrived my family had a good life just like we prayed for. I had great friends, and a good church. Then we moved back to Orange County, CA.

Like this, did you know that my dad is a YDC pastor? That's how my dad represents God! He teaches young adults about God. My mom takes care of babies, so parents can listen and get blessed by the sermon. I never, EVER forget to bring my offering. I know that some people only give one dollar, but I give five! My sister always praises God in her own way! She can sing loudly, trust me VERY loudly, and can dance really well.

Lastly, I would like to end with a poem about the church:

C- Christ

My family lives in Jesus Christ.

H-Heaven

When we believe in Jesus Christ we go to heaven

U- Under the mighty hand of God

We are under the mighty hand of God

R-Resurrection, Remember,

Remember that Jesus resurrected from the dead

C-Child

You are the child of God, if you are in Jesus

H-Heavenly father

God is our Heavenly Father

My family loves God in this way, we are joyful, and we praise God in these ways. Forever and ever we will continue doing those things.
